KANSAS CITY GETS BIG BOXING BOUT?

Sammy McClintic Leaves to Complete Arrangements for Match.

The Morris-Moran boxing contest, that was to have been staged in Tuisa but which was called off by the sa but which was called off by the promoters on account of the interference of officials, will be held in Kansas City some time in September, it is reliably reported.

Sammy McClintic, one of the local promoters, left last night for Kansas City to confer with Jimmy Hurst, well known Kansas City impresario, regarding arrangements for the contest, it probably will be staged at Convention half. Moran and Morris are doing light training and will spend a week or two in Kansas City prior to the fight.

It is altogether probable that a special train will be run from Tulsa to Kansas City to accomodate local fans who will want to see the two glantis get together.

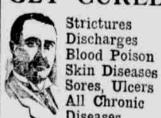

Arrangements have been made for refunding all money paid for tickets. The refund will take place at the Hrady hotel Tuesday afternoon starting at 1.30 o'clock. All ticket holders are expected to be on hand during the afternoon.
